

Pam Picard

Pam has extensive experience as an executive producer and producer for dozens of broadcasts and large scale live events on all media platforms – network television, cable networks and digital outlets.

She is currently Executive Producer/Broadcast and Media Director for the Boston Symphony Orchestra serving as showrunner for the Boston Pops Fireworks Spectacular, the annual live Independence Day celebration broadcast from Boston. This annual live entertainment special has aired on CBS for more than a decade.

In addition, she has credits as producer, supervising producer and editor for broadcasts and digital projects, including credits on CBS, HBO, A&E, USA, Fox, WBZ-TV, WCVB-TV, NECN and several production companies in Boston, New York and Los Angeles.

Pam is a two-time Emmy Award winning producer for “Special Event Coverage” by The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences Boston/New England.

Pam graduated from Emerson College with a Master of Arts in Media and Visual Arts and the University of New Hampshire with a dual Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Psychology.