WINNERS FOR 2022 NATIONAL STUDENT PRODUCTION AWARDS ANNOUNCED

NEW YORK, November 17, 2022 – Winners of the 7th Annual National Student Production Awards were announced today during a virtual ceremony hosted by ABC News correspondent, Rachel Scott. The Foundation of The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS) presents this competition which recognizes talented students from across the country.

“The future journalists, analysts, correspondents and entertainers of the next generation will be found among these talented young nominees represented here,” said Adam Sharp, President & CEO, NATAS. “Highlighting their work and encouraging their pursuit of excellence is one of the primary mandates of our Foundation.”

This year, students from over 120 schools were represented in the competition having previously been selected as winners in one of the NATAS Regional Chapter competitions.

“These students represent the finest of the finest, in their field of study,” said Doug Mummert, Chairman of the NATAS Foundation. “They are the future of our craft and industry. We look forward to great things from these young, creative leaders!”

In addition to Rachel Scott, the award winners were announced by Alzo Slade, Vice News; Malika Andrews, ESPN; Maddie Matthies, MadMatthies; Danielle Mannion, NATAS Education Chair and Lindsey Reisner, MSNBC. Recipients were announced via a web stream produced by NATAS. This and all NATAS ceremonies are available on NATAS’ dedicated viewing platform powered by Vimeo, available on the web at Watch.TheEmmys.TV and via The Emmys® apps for iOS, tvOS, Android, FireTV, Roku and Samsung TV (full list at apps.theemmys.tv).

About NATAS

The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS) is a service organization dedicated to the advancement of the arts and sciences of television and the promotion of creative leadership for artistic, educational, and technical achievements within the television industry. It recognizes excellence in television with the coveted Emmy® Awards for News & Documentary, Sports, and Daytime television programming, as well as achievements in television Technology & Engineering. NATAS membership consists of more than 18,000 broadcast and media professionals represented in 19 regional chapters across the United States. Beyond awards, NATAS provides extensive educational programs through its Foundation, including regional and national scholarships and Student Production Awards.
